Online application form

To apply for the Erasmus stay at our university, fill in our online application form: <https://isois.ois.muni.cz/application/>

The online form will be opened on 10th March 2011.

!!! The deadline for filling in the application for the autumn semester 2011 is on 15 July 2011!!!

!!! The deadline for filling in the application for the spring semester 2012 is on 15 November 2011!!!

After the application is filled in and submitted, it will be automatically saved in our online database and sent to both you and us by e-mail. Please print it out, bring it to your Erasmus exchange coordinators for their signature and send by post to us.

Learning agreement

The other document we need from you is the learning agreement. You can either use your university's form or download and print out our form from the website (see the path above, then click on „To Download“)

Write into the learning agreement the courses you would like to/have to attend at our university and discuss your choice with your departmental coordinator. You can choose from the list of courses (taught in English) available on the website (see the path above, then click on the link „Courses offered at the different MU faculties“)

Print it out and get it signed by your departmental and institutional Erasmus coordinator and send by post to the address above, together with the printed and signed application form.

The acceptance letter and other information

The acceptance letter will be sent to you as soon as we receive your application form and the learning agreement and this will be approved and signed by a departmental coordinator at Masaryk University.

After the deadline, you will receive info sheets with detailed information concerning the course registration by post. Prior to your arrival, you will also receive arrival information and a pdf version of the Introductory Guide by e-mail.
